the focus of richard zgusta s the peoples of northeast asia through time is the formation of indigenous and cultural groups of coastal northeast asia including the ainu the paleoasiatic peoples and the asiatic eskimo most chapters begin with a summary of each culture at the beginning of the colonial era which is followed by an interdisciplinary reconstruction of prehistoric cultures that have direct ancestor descendant relationships with the modern ones an additional chapter presents a comparative discussion of the ethnographic data including subsistence patterns material culture social organization and religious beliefs from a diachronic viewpoint each chapter includes maps and extensive references in order to demonstrate that speculative fiction provides a valuable contribution to the discussion about the challenges of the anthropocene images of the anthropocene in speculative fiction investigates a range of novels whose subject matter pertains to various aspects of the anthropocene these include the destruction and protection of the natural environment the relationship between human and non human inhabitants of the planet the role of myth in the shaping of and combat against the anthropocene the political dimensions of the anthropocene the ensuing threat of the apocalypse and the role of post apocalyptic narratives to explore these topics our authors examine the works of patricia briggs m r carey dmitry glukhovsky ursula k le guin n k jemisin stephenie meyer china miéville james patterson maggie stiefvater j r r tolkien and scott westfield their essays demonstrate that speculative fiction given its ability to pursue scenarios of alternative history and present familiar things in an unfamiliar way can alter the readers perception of their duties and responsibilities towards their communities and the world so that the threat of human wrought destruction might ultimately be averted though she is from a family of clairvoyants blue sargent s only gift seems to be that she makes other people s talents stronger and when she meets gansey one of the raven boys from the expensive aglionby academy she discovers that he has talents of his own and that together their talents are a dangerous mix
