in this project i propose at least two new lectionaries a year w a women s readings year that can be added to the current episcopal or revised common rcl lectionaries and a new three year cycle how would a lectionary centering women s stories chosen with womanist and feminist commitments in mind frame the presentation of the scriptures for proclamation and teaching more simply what would it look like if women built a lectionary focusing on women s stories how is the story of god told when stories of women s brutalization and marginalization are moved from the margins of canon and lectionary and held in the center in tension with stories of savvy and strong women women whose contribution is not limited to or does not even include childbearing there are more than two billion christians in the world according to the pew research center demographic projections pew research center s forum on religion and public life global religious landscape december 2012 2 3 billion in 2015 with roman catholics making up an estimated 1 2 billion and accounting for orthodox christians anglicans episcopalians methodists presbyterians lutherans and other reformed traditions along with some baptist and congregational churches that use a lectionary the overwhelming majority of christians receive their scripture mediated through a lectionary based on the numbers in the pew research center s 12 may 2015 report america s changing religious landscape as much as sixty percent of american christians attend services in churches that use lectionaries those lectionaries are not simply as androcentric as are the scriptures but in my experience as a congregant and priest women are even less well represented than they are in the biblical text for example there are one hundred and eleven named women in the hebrew scriptures which is itself under represented in preaching lectionaries not accounting for the numbers of unnamed women and girls the lectionary is a catechetical tool all many congregants know of the bible is the texts they hear read from their respective lectionary as a biblical scholar it is my hope to see congregants exposed to the bible more broadly and deeply and see them equipped to engage the sacred texts of their tradition critically with nuance this book will be for use in liturgical contexts in parishes and the institutions of the church in seminary classrooms particularly worship and liturgy and for individual devotional use the final installment in the critically acclaimed lectionary series that focuses on women s stories in this third volume of a three volume lectionary widely praised womanist bible scholar and priest wilda gafney selects scripture readings that emphasize women s stories focusing especially on the gospel of luke year c of a women s lectionary features gafney s fresh inclusive and thought provoking translations of every reading alongside commentary on each reading designed for liturgical use or scriptural study this resource offers a new perspective on the bible and the liturgical year gafney s paradigm shifting scholarship will influence biblical preaching and teaching for generations to come national catholic reporter what would it look like if women built a lectionary focusing on women s stories what does it look like to tell the good news through the stories of women who are often on the margins of scripture and often set up to represent bad news how would a lectionary centering women s stories chosen with womanist and feminist commitments in mind frame the presentation of the scriptures for proclamation and teaching the scriptures are androcentric male focused as is the lectionary that is dependent upon them as a result many congregants know only the biblical men s stories told in the sunday lectionary read in their churches a more expansive more inclusive lectionary will remedy that by introducing readers and hearers of scripture to women s stories in the scriptures a women s lectionary for the whole church when completed will be a three year lectionary accompanied by a stand alone single year lectionary year w that covers all four gospels how does the bible form our worship practices how does liturgy incorporate the bible the liturgy and life study bible explores these questions and provides answers for today s church this indispensable guide includes essays from the world s top liturgical and biblical scholars on a variety of subjects including jewish liturgical traditions psalms as liturgical prayer early church worship social justice sacraments the last supper and more throughout the biblical text brief comments flag passages that contain something of liturgical or personal prayer interest a correlation chart highlights the intersection between biblical passages and the catholic liturgy listing every place where a verse of the bible appears in any liturgical book the missal the orders of sacramental rites even the roman gradual and the martyrology this one of a kind tool will serve researchers catechists preachers and anyone studying the bible for the purposes of prayer and meditation uses the new american bible revised edition cover art by jan richardson includes eight full color map images a resource guide for designing facilitating and conducting sunday morning catechumenate sessions and for assisting personal reflection during the catechumenate includes the church s constitution and canons which have separate title pages and paging and are also published separately includes entries for maps and atlases this third edition of preaching the lectionary will appeal to homilists and others who have a ministerial or preparatory role in the sunday liturgy written with the needs of the active pastor homilist and liturgist in mind it offers brief technical discussions balanced with practical insights and reflections this new edition of a classic approach to the lectionary has been updated to reflect the thinking of a wide range of biblical scholars and theologians all eucharistic readings edited for liturgical use from the revised standard version translation of the bible the paper bound pew edition fits easily into the standard pew rack
